Scripture Reflection

God lovingly pursues us, calling us far beyond our own safety zones to share the good news of salvation.

We see this clearly in the life of the apostle Peter.

He was chosen for discipleship by Jesus, but he had a hard time. When Jesus was brought before the high priest, Peter was so afraid that he denied three times that he was Christ's disciple. After he saw Jesus' empty tomb, he went home and locked all the doors. When it looked like the great adventure with Jesus was a miserable failure, he went back to what he knew: his fishing boat.

However, the promise of Easter was genuine. Jesus really did rise from the dead. He met Simon Peter on his own territory, when he was fishing, and called him again. Call and response were unmistakable. Three times, Jesus asks "Do you love me?" Peter's answer was "Yes", "Yes" and "Yes I do, and I already told you I did."

Jesus tells Peter to take care of the flock, prepare for difficult times and "Follow me". Peter did that. So today, all around the world, we are still responding to God's call, still daring to take risks in service to the proclamation of God's unending love. We are compelled to share the good news of Jesus Christ, risen from the dead. Alleluia!

Marilyn J. Sweet - Halifax, NS

"Jesus, we praise you for the victory of your resurrection!"

Take Advantage of the Continued High Enthusiasm for Easter Time

The Church which "goes forth" is a community of missionary disciples who take the first step, who are involved and supportive, who bear fruit and rejoice...Let's try a little harder to take the first step and to become involved...An evangelizing community gets involved by word and deed in people's daily lives; it bridges distances, it is willing to abase itself if necessary, and it embraces human life, touching the suffering flesh of Christ in others...Evangelization with joy becomes beauty in the liturgy, as part of our daily concern to spread goodness. The Church evangelizes and is herself evangelized through the beauty of the liturgy, which is both a celebration of the task of evangelization and the source of her renewed self-giving.

Pope Francis - Evangelii Gaudium, 24

Season of Easter

The seven weeks from Easter to Pentecost are celebrated as one great feast day. St. Athanasius called them "the great Sunday". Sunday is the original Christian Feast Day, following the tradition handed down from apostolic times, for this was the day of the Lord's Resurrection. Today's Christian communities continue this tradition by celebrating every Sunday as the day of the Risen Lord.

Knights of Columbus – May 19th

The Squamish Knights of Columbus council will be making a short presentation after Mass on Sunday:
